SafeGuards

Training for Children and Adult Services

Certificate of Completion

Cas Harwood

Successfully completed SafeGuard's online certificate program:

Respite Services Training

The Respite Services Training certificate program prepares individuals to work in respite support situations. The Learning Outcomes include the following: understanding the role of a respite support provider, how to support a person in a meaningful life, employing active listening skills for effective communication, understanding boundaries related to the job of a respite support provider, how to create a positive environment to handle challenging respite support situations, how to implement good health and safety practices, and how to recognize signs of abuse and know the proper procedures to follow.

Date of Completion

2021-05-01